It hardly seems like yesterday since I was penning a welcome to our previous brochure - how time flies ... and I hope you have been enjoying yourselves since we last went to press, in spite of our doubtful summer weather.

Whatever you've been up to, I can promise you some brilliant entertainment in the weeks and months to come, no matter what your tastes. Panto, of course, takes up lots of our time round about this time of year and, 2024, CINDERELLA, promises to be bigger and better than ever with 'relaxed' and 'signed' performances to ensure that as many people as possible can join in the fun.

The rest of the lineup, leading up to panto, has, of course, more variety than ever and should appeal to most tastes. Why not be adventurous this time and book for something entirely outside of your normal taste range? Who knows? You may be pleasantly surprised and find yourself a whole new world of entertainment. Of course, if you'd rather play it safe and stick to your usual taste you'll still find plenty to catch your eye.

Whatever your taste, whatever your style you'll find the usual welcome awaiting you here
My very best wishes

David Garrnett

JODIE COMER

Prima Facie

Written by Suzie Miller directed by Justin Martin

National Theatre Live 2024: Prima Facie

Back by popular demand, Jodie Comer (Killing Eve) makes her West End debut in the UK premiere of Suzie Miller's award-winning play. Tessa is a young, brilliant barrister. She has worked her way up from working class origins to be at the top of her game; defending; cross examining and winning. An unexpected event forces her to confront the lines where the patriarchal power of the law, burden of proof and morals diverge.

Prima Facie takes us to the heart of where emotion and experience collide with the rules of the game. Justin Martin directs this solo tour de force, captured live from the intimate Harold Pinter Theatre in London's West End.

Tickets £15.50

Miss Saigon

Volunteer with us

The logo for Phoenix Theatre, featuring a stylized red phoenix bird with its wings spread, positioned over the word 'with' in the main title.

The Phoenix Theatre relies upon our enthusiastic and hard-working team of volunteers for a variety of roles as they are the lifeblood of the organisation.

Volunteers are our biggest asset, particularly when carrying out front of house duties such as ticket checking; programme and ice cream selling; serving drinks etc. You are the front line as far as the audience experience is concerned and their enjoyment will depend, in part, on how they are dealt with by you.

If you prefer, there are other roles behind the scenes associated with show production such as costumes, set building, lighting and sound. If you have a particular skill that you feel would be useful speak to one of the team on your next visit.

For more information on volunteering with us, speak to one of the team or email us admin@thephoenixtheatre.org.uk

Box Office Opening Times

Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays: 10:00am to 12:30pm. On performance days the Box Office will be open 1 hour prior to show start. On cinema days the Box Office will be open 30 minutes before the film screening time.
